

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

TO : Internal Affairs Bureau
FROM : Philadelphia Branch
SUBJECT: Transcripts of Dale B. Cooper's Field Notes

As IAB has been made well aware, Special Agent Dale Bartholomew Cooper routinely records field notes on his department-issued Realistic Micro-27 recorder. These tapes are regularly delivered to the Philadelphia Field Office, where secretary Diane Frost dutifully transcribes each of them for our permanent archive.

Pursuant to your request for the ongoing BLUE ROSE internal investigation, please find enclosed transcripts of Agent Cooper's most recent field notes. We will continue to provide you with up-to-date transcripts as they become available. And should IAB require any additional materials, the Philadelphia Branch is happy to provide them.

Date: 25 March, 1989

Cooper: Diane, it's 1:17 p.m. I have just concluded my second meditation of the day in lieu of sleep, and I feel completely refreshed and struck again by the realization that all of us on this great big planet earth live at only a fraction of our potential.

We are working round the clock on the cave petroglyph¹. I am certain that the answers lie in this mysterious etching. I am also convinced that Windom Earle² is searching for exactly the same thing as we are for diametrically opposite reasons. If I am correct in my assumptions about the power of this unholy place, God help us if he gets there first.

Diane, at this particular juncture, I would like to make specific mention of Annie Blackburn³. She is a completely original human being. Her responses as pure as those of a child.

I must be honest, I haven't felt this way about a woman since Caroline⁴. It has taken meeting Annie for me to realize how gray my life has been since Caroline's death. How cold and solitary.

[KNOCKING ON DOOR]

Although, occasionally, there is something to be said for solitude.

² Cooper's partner from 1982 through 1985, when Earle was remanded to a psychiatric facility. Earle escaped custody on 2 March, 1989, and travelled to Twin Peaks in search of the BLACK LODGE. Earle disappeared on 25 March, and has not been heard from since.
